

MYTHIC MAIL

Hello there! Allow me to introduce myself— I'm Ursa. I'm one of those people who has always been thought of as the "weird kid". But over the years I have learned to embrace it. Being weird makes life a lot less boring and now it is just "my thing".

I like to travel around the world with my dog, Ink, and find mythic creatures. Some people think these creatures are simply myth or just part of old tales. Well... they are part of old tales, but they are also very real. If you know where to look, they aren't even all that difficult to find.

I will write to you soon and include all my weird adventures along with some of my sketches so you can find mythic creatures on your own adventures!
